

The Ambassador Young Award for Outstanding Ethics, Service, and Commitment to Family and Community

In 2011, The Ethics Project created the Ambassador Young Award for Outstanding Ethics, Service, and Commitment to Family and Community in honor of the extraordinary service of Ambassador Young as a top advisor to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., member of Congress, a US Ambassador to the United Nations, mayor of Atlanta, minister and more. Ambassador Young has presented the award to more than 30 distinguished members of the community from Washington DC. to California, and on November 13, 2017, the award will be presented to distinguished law-enforcement officers and superintendents by Presidential Freedom recipient, Rev. Dr. C.T. Vivian. We invite you to nominate a school superintendent from around the country who has exhibited outstanding leadership in shaping the minds of our students.
